Merchants Today to Petition New Postmaster for Branch.

COMMITTEE SENDS LETTER

Business Men's Request Will Be First Matter Before Official After He Takes Oath.

When Merritt O. Chance, chief clerk the Postoffice Department, enters this morning upon the duties of his new office of city postmaster, the first matter to come before him for consideration and action will be a letter from prominent downtown merchants urging immediate re-establishment of a branch postoffice in the Postoffice Department Building at Eleventh street and Pennsylvania avenue postoffices.

The letter was formulated yester-day afternoon in the rooms of the Retail Merchants' Association at a meeting of the executive committee of the citisens' committee on downtown postal facilities.

The committee expressed pleasure at having seen in yesterday's Herald a statement from Mr. Chance to the effect that he would enter upon consideration of the matter with an open Victory Expected.

Members of the executive commit-tee said they felt confident that Mr. Chance would give the matter the fullest consideration and that he would respond favorably to the facts and arguments presented in substan-tiation of the contention that postal facilities in the downtown section are

The executive committee reached the conclusion that it would be wise to urge Mr Chance's immediate consideration of the question along such lines as he might care to pursue before appearing in delegation before him with the many facts that have been compiled.

The letter was cordial in tone, congratulating the postmaster upon his appointment and wishing him success in his new field of labor. He was asked to give attention to the matter without delay, as merchants now are suffering because of lack of facilities. No extensive arguments—in fact, practically no arguments—were con-Supreme Court yesterday. An absolute divorce from Herman W. Grant was granted Florence Grant by Justice Siddons in the District Supreme Court yesterday. The plaintiff alleged misconduct by her husband. They were married October 17, 1907. Attorney L. M. King appeared for the wife.

Alleging she was knocked down by a Will Americ Desired.

Alleging she was knocked down by a motor truck of the Washington Silicate Brick Company and as a result had to have her right leg amputated, Ada MacDonald yesterday filed suit for $20,000 against the company. The accident is alleged to have occurred in Rock Creek Church road in November, 1914. Attorneys Frank J. Hogan and Milton A. Kaufman appear for the plaintiff.

Alleging that employes of the Home Furniture Company attacked her "with sticks, clubs, fists, hands, feet, and bottles" when they called at her home to take certain pieces of furniture, Emma Spriggs yesterday filed suit against the company for $3,000. She sets forth that the company delivered to another woman pieces of furniture on the installment plan. The plaintiff states that this woman had lived with her at other places, but was not a resident of her home when the alleged assault was committed.

Alleging the Washington Silicate Mill Mr. Chance has given the matter consideration and announced his decision. The executive committee is so confident that it will be favorable that they are giving no thought to what action would be taken should Mr. Chance stick to the conclusion reached by Mr. Praeger, retiring postmaster.

The letter to Mr. Chance was signed by Isador Grosner, chairman of the executive committee. Other members of the executive committee. Will be sworn in as postmaster, E. Allen Harris, George F. British Lose 50,000 In Three Weeks In Gallipoli, Turks Say Six Hundred Officers and One Cavalry Division Annihilated in Two-day Fight, According to Constantinople Correspondent of Frankfurter Zeitung.

Berlin (wireless via Sayville), Au-|dated August 25 and was a resume of gust 51.—The British losses in Gallipoli Peninsula since August 5 have been more than 50,000 men, according to a Constantinople dispatch printed in the Frankfurter Zeitung.

The official statement has been issued on the fighting of last Saturday and Sunday described by the Frankfurter Zeitung correspondent.

to a Constantinople dispatch printed in the Frankfurter Zeitung.

In the attacks on the Türkish positions last Saturday and Sunday the British employed 100,000 men, and their losses were extremely heavy, according to the correspondent. The killed included about 600 officers and one cavalry division; he declares, was almost completely wiped out.

"British prisoners knew nothing of the fall of Warsaw and other Russian fortresses," said the dispatch. They had been told that the Russians held the entrance to the Bosphorus and were working toward a junction with the British. In contrast to the first months of the campaign, many British soldiers now voluntarily surrender themselves."

There is no confirmation of the above dispatch from either London or Paris. The last official report issued in London on the Gallipoli operations was cribed by the Frankfurter Zeitung correspondent. The official statement issued on August 5 described in particular two separate lines of attack made by the allies. One was from the old Anzac position, and in this the Australian and New Zealand troops managed to reach the summit of the Sari-Bahr and Chanak-Bahr ridges.

They were unable to maintain their positions, however, because the second attack—from Bulva Bay—did not make the progress counted on. No mention of the iosses of the allies was made in this report, although the fighting was described in particular two separate lines of attack made by the allies.
